Prayer to the Most Holy Trinity

Heavenly Father, Author of all creation, we praise You for Your boundless love and mercy. You are the source of all goodness; the giver of life. You formed us in Your image and guide us with providence.

We thank You for the gift of Your Son, Jesus Christ, through whom You revealed Your loving plan of salvation. By His life, death, and resurrection, we are reconciled to You. You have adopted us as Your beloved children and made us heirs to Your Kingdom.

May we cherish our identity as Your sons and daughters, living lives that radiate Your love to everyone whom we meet. We entrust ourselves to Your unfailing care. We desire that Your will be done in our lives, now and forever.

We ask this through Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

To Jesus, Son of God

O Jesus, Eternal Son of the Father, We adore You as our Savior, Lord, and Brother. You, the Word made flesh, revealed the Father’s love. You offered Yourself as a sacrifice for our salvation.

Your Sacred Heart, pierced for our transgressions, pours out mercy, compassion, and unfathomable love. You nourish us in the Eucharist, strengthening our faith. As our Risen Lord, You intercede for us constantly.

Help us to follow in Your footsteps and embrace the Cross. Transform us into Your likeness, so that we may radiate Your goodness. Be our strength, solace, and joy, and sustain us with Your grace until we behold You face to face in Your heavenly Kingdom.

We ask this in Your most holy name, You who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

To the Holy Spirit

O Holy Spirit, Lord and Giver of Life, we praise You, the eternal Love between the Father and the Son. You bring life, inspire prophets, and guide the Church. You empower us with Your gifts and unify all in love.

We thank You for the new life in Baptism, which makes us Your temples. Sanctify us, Holy Spirit, conform us to Christ, and lead us to divine love. Kindle in us the fire of Your love and the zeal for Your Kingdom. Guide our minds, strengthen our wills, and direct our actions.

Renew the earth, and bring healing, comfort, and hope to all. Convict us of sin and lead us to repentance and conversion. Guide the Church and inspire our leaders with courage and compassion. Grant us unity, humility, and openness to Your promptings.

We consecrate ourselves to You, Holy Spirit: our hearts, minds, and bodies. May we be attentive to Your voice and responsive to Your call.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FROM PASTORS DESK

- “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that all who believe in him might not perish but have eternal life.”

One of the apostolic activities we had at St. Mark’s Seminary in Erie was to help out in parish Religious Education programs in the city and its suburbs. In one of the early experiences I had at St. Paul’s, I began by trying to work out how much the children knew about the basics. I asked, “When we make the sign of the cross, what do we say?” “Father, Son and Holy Spirit” came the firm reply. So far, so good. I tried to up the bar with the next question. “What do we call the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit? Complete silence. I put in the clutch, shifted to reverse and tried another track. “What do you think of when you make the sign of the cross?” There was an awkward silence as eyes glazed over and gazed up on the ceiling. Then a bright little guy said happily, “The old man, the young guy and the bird.”

No one can blame those kids for the limited images they had of the Trinity. Many older Catholics have similar images from paintings and holy pictures. The mystery of the Trinity means that in whatever way we portray God as Father, son and Holy Spirit it will always be inadequate and incomplete. No one has ever seen the Father or the Holy Spirit. No one has a portrait of Jesus. All the images and words we use for the Trinity are more a reflection of our faith than the final word about God. God is always more than any name we use or any concept we have. But the special insight about God we celebrate today is that relationships are at the very center of who God is.

It took the early Church four hundred years to fully grasp what Jesus was talking about when he spoke of his relationship to the Father and Spirit. They struggled to understand how and why would have three faces and yet exist as One Being – love as One, act as One. They settled the “how” of the Trinity’s nature by teaching that the Persons of the Trinity are coequal, co-substantial, and coeternal. They settled the “why” of the Trinity by reflecting that their experience of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit was an encounter of love. They knew the core of God was not an idea or a principle, but a loving relationship...and that they were invited into that relationship.

- What was true for them is true for us. Think about this for a minute: We believe that the God who creates, redeems and sustains the world seeks us out and invites us into a loving relationship. This is what gives us our greatest dignity and urges us on to share this message with everyone we meet. What a privilege! What an invitation! What a God!

It also follows that if relationships are at the core of God, then for those of us who accept the invitation into the Trinity's embrace, relationships are meant to be our core business, too. We are not to be isolated believers or private disciples. The degree to which we understand the feast of the Trinity will be shown in the care we take in our many and varied relationships, be they social, intimate, civic or professional.

Every time we do anything to form new and good relationships, mend those that are broken, help others to be deeper and richer, or just enjoy the ones we have we discover something else...that Trinity Sunday is a moveable feast!

Live in peace and the God of peace will be in you.
 Father Frank and Father Glenn

Marriage Moment

Praying together feels awkward to me. Praying in the morning sounds inhuman. If morning is not your strength, maybe it fits your spouse better and he/she could take the lead, gently wake you, and read the scripture of the day. Even if you're still groggy, sometimes just showing up is a form of prayer.

Parenting Pointers

Do you ever talk behind your child's back? Sometimes this isn't all bad. If your son or daughter "accidentally" overhears a compliment it can carry extra sincerity. If it's a warning it may defuse defensiveness. If you're just floating an idea, it can open later dialogue before making a commitment.

A Family Perspective

Just as the Father "sent His son into the world." Parents send their children into the world" so that the world might be saved." This is the missionary role of the Christian family. Your family is a school where your children develop convictions that enable them to make a difference in the world. Parenting is an awesome responsibility, not for the weak or transient.
