I know Jesus was born in a manger, but why is that important and what does it mean?

When the child Jesus was born, his mother Mary laid him in a manger (Lk 2:7). The word “manger” comes from the Latin word manducare which means “to eat.” A manger or crib is a wooden or stone feeding trough or food box that holds hay for larger farm animals like cattle, horses, and donkeys. Mangers were located wherever livestock were kept, places like stables, corrals, or caves. Farmers were sure to keep their mangers well-supplied with fodder at all times so the animals would never go hungry. The cattle can walk up to a manger at any time, and then spend long, leisure hours chomping away, chewing and slowly re-chewing their cud.

When Mary and Joseph arrived in Bethlehem there was no room for them at the inn, so they were forced to find lodging elsewhere, probably in a cave where animals were staying. When Jesus was born, Mary would not have wanted to lay her infant on the hard, cold, stone floor. Instead, she had to make due with what was available and the manger proved to be a convenient alternative: the hay was soft, the box was up and off the ground, and the sides tall enough to keep her child safely inside.

Once laid there, an angel told the shepherds that they would find their newborn Messiah and Lord “lying in a manger” (Lk 2:12). They went in haste and found the child in the feeding trough and they feasted their eyes on him (Lk 2:16).

Jesus was not laid in a manger by accident. It is a major spiritual symbol. Animals go to the manger for physical food, but with Jesus lying on the hay, we can go to the manger for spiritual food. Jesus has an infinite storehouse of nourishment available, and we can approach him any time and never go hungry. Jesus feeds us with Word and Sacrament, his gospel and the Eucharist. Jesus wants us to devour his word (Jer 15:16; Ez 3:1; Rev 10:9-10), chew on it, slowly ruminate on its meaning, swallow and digest it, and make it part of the fabric of our being. Jesus’ Word is like no other food, it has the power to save our souls (Jas 1:21). Not only that, the infant in the feeding trough is the Bread of Life (Jn 6:35), the true bread come down from heaven, and whoever eats this bread will live forever (Jn 6:51). If a person wants to be spiritually well-fed, it is important to read Scripture and receive the Eucharist often.

The manger is a momentous sign that Jesus is sustenance for us. The shepherds feasted first. Now it is our turn. Jesus born on the first Christmas is food for our souls.

AS WE GATHER, THIS YEAR, TO CELEBRATE THE BIRTH OF OUR LORD, JESUS CHRIST,
LET US REMEMBER OUR MANY LOVED ONES THAT CAME BEFORE US. THEY GAVE US
OUR FAITH, OUR LOVE AND OUR FRIENDSHIP FOR EACH OTHER.
MAY THEY ALL REST IN THE ARMS OF OUR LORD.

FROM THE PASTORS DESK

The angel told Joseph in a dream to take the child and his mother to the land of Israel.

I once saw a painting of the Holy Family that showed Joseph doing carpentry while Jesus held a tool and Mary watched at the door, doing nothing. Not like any family I know.

We know what real families are like. In a real family, Jesus would have been getting in his father’s way or off somewhere else when Joseph wanted help. Mary would have been working keeping the house livable and the family fed.

If that picture of Joseph’s workshop is of a holy family, we’re all out of luck. All we can do is stare at it wistfully and think of how nice it would be is all families were perfect. If family holiness is some impossible situation of goodness, harmony, cleanliness and hard work, there is no reason for us to celebrate this day.

Perhaps the painting was wrong. Maybe Jesus was a pest around the house. Maybe Mary shouted herself hoarse calling him to meals. Maybe Joseph got so caught up in his work that Mary and Jesus stood at the workshop door, ignored. Maybe Mary sometimes burned the bread.

We just celebrated the birth of Jesus and our faith tells us that God wasn’t play-acting at being human. Jesus really needed to be toilet trained, he really got bumps and bruises horsing around with his friends. Yes, he could be a pest! The family we call the Holy Family was not all that different from other families.

The word “holy” comes from the word healthy. Holiness is a sort of health, and health may be a path for us to understand holiness. When we’re healthy we move through life with a certain confidence – not fearing life or the world or that everyday we’re going to face a calamity. Holiness is also a kind of confidence, a confidence that God’s love for us is stronger than sin or death.

Consider those people who make physical and mental health the exclusive object of their lives each and every day. They can be burdensome to us. They are neither happy nor truly healthy, because health is a by-product of a certain kind of life. One who walks, runs, climbs or dances for the joy of it is healthy.

Holiness, too, is a result, not an objective. When I’m filled with amazement at God’s love, especially during these days of the Christmas season, and share that love with people in my life, I become holy. I feel my prayer is joyful; I pray with gusto. If I turn prayer into some form of spiritual calisthenics, I will be neither happy nor holy.

That takes us back to the Holy Family. It was holy not because it lived an exalted life unavailable to the rest of us. It was holy because it was a group of people not unlike ourselves who loved, who lived, who wept and laughed. Theirs was a home in which a boy could, as the Scriptures say, “grow in strength and size, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was with him.”

Our homes can be the same, maybe more than we realize they are. They have their problems, no family is without them. Every mother feels swords pierce her heart from time to time. Home is where we learn to love...and to love God. That’s where we practice sharing, openness and patience; and that is a reflection of God’s love for us all.

May 2026 be a blessing for all your families!

Father Glenn and Father Frank

PARENTING POINTERS

Take time to savor each gift you open and appreciate the giver. Help your children learn that as they receive, so they are also responsible for giving. Choose a charity to support as a family. Remember, those who have less through prayer and a donation.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

“On the fourth Day of Christmas my true love gave to me, four calling birds...”
How do you call your true love? Do you have a pet name? Say your spouse’s name with special tenderness today.

A MEANINGFUL GIFT FOR THE NEW YEAR

Planning a wedding in 2026? Start your marriage with intention and faith. Join the Engagement Encounter retreat, February 6-8 at St. Mark Catholic Center in Erie. ### CHILD PROTECTION

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments- Bullying is defined as any unwanted aggressive behavior by another youth or group of youths that involves an observed or perceived power imbalance and is repeated multiple times or is highly likely to be repeated. 20% of youth ages 12-18 experience bullying. When adults respond quickly to bullying behavior, they send the message that bullying is not acceptable. There are ways parents can make a positive difference. Parents can educate themselves on the signs that a child is being bullied or is a bully. Parents should keep the lines of communication open with their child and model for their child how to treat others. Encourage your child to be inclusive by welcoming others to join their activities and groups. For more information on how to prevent bullying in your community visit www.stopbullying.org.
